

Visiting Anfield Guide

Welcome to the world's greatest football family

Getting to the Ground:

Train: Lime Street Railway Station is two miles from Anfield. You can take a taxi from Lime Street (fares usually cost between £7- £9) or buses go from nearby Queen Square Bus Station. On matchdays you can use the Merseyrail network to link with the Soccerbus service from Sandhills Station.

Bus: From Liverpool City Centre, take the 26 or 27 from Paradise Street Interchange, 17 from Queen Square Bus Station or the 917 from St Johns Lane, directly to the ground.

The 68/168, which operates between Bootle and Aigburth, and the 14 and 19 (from Queen Square) stop a short walk away from the ground.

The 'Gillmoss Park and Ride' facility is available on a matchday for fans. For more information go to www.merseytravel.gov.uk/travelling-around/timetables/AllTimetables

The Soccer Bus runs from Sandhills Station, on the Merseyrail Northern Line, to Anfield for all Liverpool home Barclays Premier League and cup matches. The Soccerbus runs two hours before each match (last bus from Sandhills Station is approximately 15 minutes before kick-off) and for 50 minutes after the final whistle (subject to availability). For more information go to www.liverpoolfc.com/travel/getting-to-anfield

Car: Parking: Pay on the day parking is available at St Domingo School - L5 6RS and is charged at £5. See map on page 3.

Anfield is accessible from all major routes. For more information go to www.liverpoolfc.com/travel/getting-to-anfield

Cycle: Should you wish to cycle to the ground we have a designated area in the Food Village on Anfield Road for you to store your bicycle. Please note that the safety and security of bicycles is the responsibility of the owner.

For up to date travel information on the day of the game, follow the Matchday Merseyside Police twitter account @MatchdayPolice
